Subject: Correspondence course on 'Training and Development' offered by the Indian Society for Training and Development (ISTD), New Delhi - Nomination under Faculty Development Scheme

Sir/Madam,

I am directed to say that the Indian Society for Training and Development (ISTD), New Delhi is offering a correspondence course on 'Training and Development'. The objective of the course is to provide orientation skills of Training and Development as well as the specialization in functional areas of Training and Human Resource Development. The Diploma in Training and Development is recognized by the Ministry of Human Resource Development for recruitment to superior posts. The detailed information about the programme could be accessed from the website of the ISTD <http://www.istddiploma.org/index.asp>.

DoPT is funding the course fee of the programme under the Faculty Development Scheme. It is requested that the officers willing to enroll themselves for the programme may send their nominations to this Division in the enclosed proforma (<http://persmin.gov.in/otraining/TDP/NominationForm.pdf>).

The Diploma course of the ISTD, New Delhi is not counted for the purpose of cooling off period of two years under the Faculty Development Scheme.

Yours faithfully,

(Sandeep Mukherjee)
Under Secretary (B & TFA)
